Legacy Life

March 20, 2022

I say this as a concession, not as a command. I wish that all men were as I am. But each man has his own gift from God; one has this gift, another has that. Now to the unmarried and the widows I say: It is good for them to stay unmarried, as I am. But if they cannot control themselves, they should marry, for it is better to marry than to burn with passion. To the married I give this command (not I, but the Lord): A wife must not separate from her husband. But if she does, she must remain unmarried or else be reconciled to her husband. And a husband must not divorce his wife. To the rest I say this (I, not the Lord): If any brother has a wife who is not a believer and she is willing to live with him, he must not divorce her. And if a woman has a husband who is not a believer and he is willing to live with her, she must not divorce him. For the unbelieving husband has been sanctified through her believing husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but as it is, they are holy. But if the unbeliever leaves, let him do so. A believing man or woman is not bound in such circumstances; God has called us to live in peace. How do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or, how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife? Nevertheless, each one should retain the place in life that the Lord assigned to him and to which God has called him. This is the rule I lay down in all the churches.

Annie Armstrong Easter Offering

Your prayers and gifts to the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering® provide support for thousands of missionaries. These men and women are planting new churches in unreached communities and meeting needs through compassion ministries. Every day, lives are being impacted and transformed. Please be in prayer as to how God would want you to donate in spreading the gospel in North America. Envelopes and prayer guides are available on the Connect Table in the back of the sanctuary.

Legacy Leadership / Discipleship Training Tuesday Nights @ 6:30pm

Over the next few Tuesday nights, we will be studying the question, "What is the gospel?" This question is at the heart of the Christian religion, because it ties together God's truth (the Bible) with God himself (in the person of Jesus Christ). It also considers the human condition and our relationship to God. We would like to invite our community to join us; this study will be very helpful for anyone who has questions about the core teachings of Christianity, or who wants to know more about what it means to be a Christian.

Let me encourage you to consider: 1) attending these Tuesday night Bible studies, 2) bringing your kids - they desperately need to hear these truths (we do offer childcare for the little ones), 3) Praying fervently for gospel impact in and through our church, 4) Inviting unsaved friends to attend, who do not know Jesus or the gospel. This part of our study will be a super helpful introduction to the core of Christian belief - salvation by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone, as revealed by the Scriptures. Our Tuesday night Bible studies begin at 6:30pm in the Community Room, and last just about an hour. All are welcome, and free childcare is available for small children. If you can't make it in person, you can join us via zoom at zoom.legacychurch.us. - PB
